4. Purpose and legal basis for the collection and processing of personal data

3.a. Purpose

Conducting a procurement procedure "Girls Go STEM Services 2026-2028"

3.b. Legal basis

Art. 6 (1) lit. c) in conjunction with
Art. 6 (3) GDPR and sections 97 (1) sentence 1, 122 ARC

5. Collection of personal data by third parties

Pursuant to section 19 subsection 4 MiLoG, section 21 subsection 4 AEntG, section 21 subsection 1 sentence 5 SchwarzArbG, section 98c subsection 3 AufenthG in conjunction with section 21 (4) AEntG and section 22 LkSG, the contracting entity is obliged to request information from the competition register pursuant to section 6 Competition Register Act (Wettbewerbsregistergesetz – WRegG) on the absence of the respective grounds for exclusion before awarding the contract to the tenderer who is to be awarded the contract.

6. Criteria for determining the duration of the retention of personal data

The duration of the storage of personal data follows the retention periods under public procurement law (section 8 (4) VgV).

7. The Rights of the Data Subjects

Right to Information

There is a right of access to the personal data processed by the registry (Art. 15 GDPR).

Right to Rectification

There is a right to rectification where the information concerning the candidate or tenderer is not (no longer) accurate. Incomplete data can be completed (Art. 16 GDPR).

Right to Deletion

In principle, there is a right to deletion of personal data. However, the entitlement depends, among other things, on whether the data are still needed to fulfil the tasks (see also duration of storage) (Art. 17 GDPR).

Right to Limit the Processing

There is a right to demand that the processing of the applicant's/tenderer's data be restricted (Art. 18 GDPR).

Right to Appeal

The right exists to object to the processing of the data relating to the applicant or tenderer for reasons arising from the particular situation of the latter unless this is contrary to an overriding public interest or a legal provision (Art. 21 GDPR).

Right to file a complaint to the data protection supervisory authority

Where the responding authority has not complied, or has not fully complied with its obligations, any complaints shall be addressed to it:
