4. German course for partners

The Alexander von Humboldt Foundation can grant upon application an intensive language course for partners who wish to attend the course simultaneously, providing the necessary funds are available. Couples will be accommodated in double rooms. Language fellowships can only be granted if

- the partner stays in Germany for a period of at least three months (without interruption) following the course and
- children do not arrive in Germany before the end of the language course.

Partners are spouses and civil partners, as well as unmarried and cohabiting partners, who live together with joint children in a shared household or jointly care for children in a shared household.

I would also like to request an intensive language course for my partner for the same period. I confirm that the aforementioned requirements are fulfilled.
